Defendants.§

§IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF*ORANGE COUNTY, TEXAS260th JUDICIAL DISTRICT*PLAINTIFF'S ORIGINAL PETITION

NOW COMES, Plaintiff, KENNEDY LEE TASKER, and hereby files this action against, RELIABLE CARRIERS INC. and TRAVIS SMITH (collectively "Defendants") and alleges the following:

I. DISCOVERY CONTROL PLAN

1.1 Pursuant to Rule 190.3 of the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure, Plaintiff alleges that discovery in this case should be conducted under Level III.

II. PARTIES

2.1 Plaintiff, Kennedy Lee Tasker, is a citizen and resident of Lake Charles, Louisiana and has been at all times relevant herein.

2.2 Defendant, Reliable Carriers Inc. ("RCI"), is a Tennessee corporation that does business in Texas and can be served by and through its registered agent, Franklin Henderson, at 2147 Volunteer Pkwy, Manchester, TN 37355 or wherever he may be found.

2.3 Defendant, Travis Smith, is a citizen and resident of Cowan, Tennessee. Defendant, Travis Smith may be served with process at 213 Looney Street, Cowan, TN 37318 or wherever he may be located.

III. ASSUMED AND COMMON NAMES

3.1 Pursuant to Rule 28 of the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure, Plaintiff hereby gives Defendants notice that they are being sued in all of their business or common names regardless of whether such businesses are partnerships, unincorporated associations, individuals, entities, or private corporations.

IV. VENUE & JURISDICTION

4.1 Venue is proper in Orange County, Texas, pursuant to Texas Civil Practice & Remedies Code section 15.002(a)(1) as Orange County is the county where the acts or omissions giving rise to the cause of action occurred.

4.2 This Court has jurisdiction over the lawsuit because the amount in controversy exceeds this Court's minimum jurisdictional requirements.

4.3 It does not offend "traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice" to require RCI to defend itself in this forum, since RCI transports interstate commerce in and through the State of Texas. Accordingly, the contacts, ties and relations of RCI to the State of Texas are sufficient to give rise to the exercise of personal jurisdiction over it by courts in the State of Texas.

4.4 Defendant, RCI, is subject to the general and specific jurisdiction of this Court, and the Courts of the State of Texas, in that RCI's contacts are continuous and systematic and its alleged liability arises from or is related to activities conducted within the State of Texas. All of its contacts are purposeful and for the intent to profit within the State of Texas. RCI purposely and intentionally availed itself of the privilege of conducting activities within the State of Texas.

V. FACTS

5.1 On June 5, 2019, Kennedy Tasker was driving his car east in the inside lane of Interstate 10 in Orange County, Texas. At the same time, Defendant, Travis Smith, was operating an 18-wheeler east on Interstate 10 in the center lane.

5.2 The 2018 Freightliner Cascadia 125 that Travis Smith was driving was owned, operated, controlled, and/or maintained by RCI, and was entrusted to Smith by RCI. Smith was acting as an employee of; working within the course and scope of his duties for; performing services in furtherance of the business interest of; driving in furtherance of a mission for the benefit of; subject to the control as to the details of his mission by; and operating a commercial motor vehicle under the badge and D.O.T. number of RCI.

5.3 While driving east on Interstate 10, Travis Smith, failed to maintain his lane of travel and crossed left into Mr. Tasker's lane. Defendant collided with Plaintiff's car while improperly changing lanes. There is nothing Plaintiff did to cause or contribute to this collision.

5.4 Plaintiff was transported by Acadian Ambulance to St. Patrick Hospital in Lake Charles due to the injuries sustained from this incident.

VI. CAUSES OF ACTION

a. Negligence of Travis Smith

6.1 Defendant, Travis Smith, was negligent in the operation of the vehicle in question. At the time of the incident made the basis of this suit, Defendant, Travis Smith, was operating the aforementioned vehicle in a negligent and careless manner in the following respects which, among others, may be shown at the trial of this cause:

- a. In failing to maintain his lane of travel;

- b. In failing to keep a proper lookout;
- c. In failing to timely swerve from causing the collision;
- d. In changing lanes when it was unsafe to do so;
- e. In failing to operate the vehicle in a reasonable and prudent manner;
- f. In failing to operate the commercial vehicle in obedience to traffic laws and regulations;
- g. In failing to operate the commercial vehicle in obedience to the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Regulations; and,
- h. Driver inattention.

6.2 Each of these acts and omissions, singularly or in combination with others, constitute negligence which was the proximate cause of this incident, and the injuries sustained by Plaintiff, Kennedy Lee Tasker.

6.3 Plaintiff would show that nothing he did, or failed to do, in any way contributed to this incident.

b. Vicarious Liability

6.4 On the occasion in question, Travis Smith committed acts of omission and commission.

6.5 The acts of omission and commission constitute negligence, as that term is understood at law.

6.6 Smith's acts of omission and commission include, but are not limited to:

- (a) Crossing over lanes without yielding to Mr. Tasker;
- (b) In failing to maintain a lane; and,
- (c) Failing to keep a proper lookout.

6.7. Said acts of omission and commission were proximate causes of the subject crash, the injuries Plaintiff's resulting damages.

6.8. Defendant RCI is liable under the doctrine of respondeat superior for the conduct of Smith, as Smith's negligent actions occurred while in the course and scope of his duties for RCI, and while driving under RCI's badge and D.O.T. number.

c. Negligence of RCI

6.9. On the occasion in question, Defendant RCI committed acts of omission and commission.

6.10. The acts of omission and commission constitute negligence, as that term is understood at law.

6.11. RCI's acts of omission and commission include, but are not limited to:

- (a) Failing to train Mr. Smith on how to drive in various weather conditions;
- (b) Failing to exercise due care in hiring, contracting with, and/or utilizing commercial motor vehicle drivers, including Smith;
- (c) Failing to inquire and/or test, or failing to exercise due care in inquiring and/or testing, commercial motor vehicle drivers' competence to operate a commercial motor vehicle, including Smith's competence, or lack thereof;
- (d) Failing to train, or failing to exercise due care in training, commercial motor vehicle drivers to operate commercial motor vehicles safely, including Smith;
- (e) Failing to monitor and/or supervise, or failing to exercise due care in monitoring and/or supervising, commercial motor vehicle driver's competence to operate a commercial motor vehicle, including Smith's competence, or lack thereof;
- (f) Retaining Smith; and,
- (g) Entrusting a commercial motor vehicle to Smith.

5.10. Said acts of omission and commission were proximate causes of the subject crash and Plaintiff's resulting damages.

VII. GROSS NEGLIGENCE BY DEFENDANTS

7.1 The dangerous condition created by Defendants' actions and/or omissions constitutes gross negligence as that term is defined under Texas law. Defendants' acts and/or omissions, when viewed objectively from Defendants' standpoint, involved an extreme degree of risk, considering the probability and magnitude of the potential harm to others. Moreover, Defendants had actual subjective awareness of the unreasonably dangerous risk of injury posed by its activities, but nevertheless proceeded with conscious indifference to the rights, safety and welfare of Plaintiff and others on the roadway. Defendants' gross negligence was a proximate cause of Plaintiff's injuries and damages.

VIII. DAMAGES

8.1. There are certain elements of damages, provided by law, that Plaintiff is entitled to have the jury in this case separately consider to determine the sum of money for each element that will fairly and reasonably compensate him for the injuries and damages and losses incurred and to be incurred.

8.2. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff has sustained and seeks recovery for his significant injuries and damages, including the following:

- a. Past and future medical expenses;
- b. Past and future physical pain and suffering;

- c. Past and future mental anguish;
- d. Past and future wages and loss of earning capacity;
- e. Past and future disfigurement;
- f. Past and future physical impairment; and,
- g. Past and Future loss of household services.

8.3. Plaintiff reserves the right to plead additional and more specific damages in the future as more facts become known. Plaintiff seeks both past and future damages. Damages far exceed the minimum jurisdictional limits of this Court. As such, Plaintiff affirmatively pleads that he seeks monetary relief over $1,000,000.00, including damages of any kind, penalties, costs, expenses, pre-judgment interest, and attorney fees; and a demand for all the other relief to which the parties deem themselves entitled.

IX. JURY DEMAND

9.1. Plaintiff demands a trial by jury to resolve all fact issues in this case.

X. PRAYER

WHEREFORE, PREMISES CONSIDERED, Plaintiff prays that Defendants, Travis Smith and Reliable Carriers Inc., be cited to appear and answer herein, and that upon final trial hereof, Plaintiff recover from said Defendants a sum within the jurisdictional limits of the Court, costs of Court, pre-judgment and post-judgment interest at the legal rate, and for any and all further relief, both general and special, legal and equitable to which Plaintiff may be justly entitled.

Respectfully submitted,
